

COMMERCIAL TRUCK DRIVER

Agronomy Center
Mount Vernon, WA

Located in the fertile Skagit Valley of Washington State, Skagit Farmers Supply has served the local agricultural community since 1934. As a local co-operative the company provides farmers, homeowners, businesses, families and the communities in the Pacific Northwest with products & services through Agronomy, Energy, Retail and Wholesale & Milling operations.

The company's Agronomy division is searching for class A or B commercial drivers (CDL) to deliver granular & liquid fertilizer, crop protection and other agricultural products to locations in northwest Washington (local deliveries only). This position is seasonal and typically lasts until June, and likely into July and August. Permanent placement for driving positions in the company's energy, agronomy or wholesale divisions is not guaranteed; however, first consideration is given to internal applicants as positions may become available. Hours per week will vary based upon weather conditions that influence the local growing season. Candidates should be flexible and detail oriented with a great attitude while ensuring excellent customer service at all times.

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES

Responsibilities include (but are not limited to):

- Driving straight truck (typically dual axle, 10 – 13 speed vehicles) to deliver bulk and bagged fertilizer in the local area (no over-the-road deliveries)
- Preparing fertilizer for shipment
